A personal note from June:

I am very excited that Sandra and Kelly have agreed to teach in Boulder this year with me. They both are grounded in many many years of personal and professional experience in spiritual, psychological, and archetypal work, as well as a deeply lived understanding of the core dharma of Trillium Awakening. I welcome you to join us!

Together,

We'll take a look into what it really means to be courageously awake and present, to be vulnerable, with an open heart, while having a real life in a body, during times of change.

We'll clarify the core characteristics of the Trillium Awakening whole being realization (2nd birth), how it differs from other types of awakenings, and look at what's necessary to be able to claim this transition.

We'll explore the challenges and glories of the ongoing Sacred Reconfiguration as the awakening deepens.

We'll play in the possibilities of the unique creative expressions, curiosities, and awakenings that continue to unfold after this whole being awakening begins to stabilize.

Come join in this exploration!
